The Third Sunday after the Epiphany

The Beloved Christ Church Cross

By Maggie FitzRoy

Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim... till all the world adore his sacred name.

Generations of parishioners have worshiped together in the presence of our beloved Christ Church cross. Prominently displayed above the altar, framed by colorful, nature-themed stained-glass windows, this beautiful symbol of Christ's sacrifice commands attention when you enter the church.

With its fleur-de-lis designed tip points and surrounding ellipse, the cross has been a beloved part of the life of our church since its initial appearance, yet few know its history.

It was designed not long after the church's founding in 1951, by The Rev. Alexander "Sandy" Juhan, the first rector of Christ Church, in collaboration with the J&R Lamb Studios of New York. According to church archives, the cross was "given to the glory of God" by Rex and Charlotte Thames in loving memory of their sons.

In 1984 when the church was expanded, the Rev. James Cooper, rector at the time, decided the cross needed to be enlarged as well to be more prominently visible in the larger space. The Thames family architect Jack Diamond and the Rambusch Company enhanced the original cross design to include the outer frame.

Today, this version of the cross, with its fleur-de-lis designed tip points and surrounding ellipse, is also the centerpiece of the altar in the Jordan service.

A brass version, dedicated to Octavia "Tay" Cooper's years of service to Christ Church, is carried in the procession each Sunday in the main church sanctuary.

This indelible image of Christ's love for us has also been fashioned as a pendant to be awarded for service, and it is proudly worn and cherished by many long-time parishioners.

*Welcome to Christ Church Ponte Vedra Beach! We are delighted to have you worship with us.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!*

THE WORD OF GOD

Silence for Prayer

This is a contemplative service that is preceded by a period of silence at 4:50 p.m.

Prelude

Abundance

Joel Raney

Please stand at the sound of the bell.

Opening Sentences

Lector

O God of life, you know the secret thoughts of every heart.
We bring the faith that is in us, and the doubt;
we bring the joy that is in us, and the sorrow.

O God of life, you are in the light, and in the darkness.
We bring the knowledge that is in us, and the ignorance;
we bring the hope that is in us, and the despair.

O God of life, O generous Spirit.

People

Renew us with your Spirit, today, tomorrow and always.

First Hymn

Will You Come and Follow Me

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my Name be known?
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the pris'ner free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen?
And admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Prayer for the Evening

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord, make us people of stillness. Help us to be empty before you, that we may be filled with your peace; teach us to be quiet in your presence, that we may listen to your words; and give us confidence to expose our whole being to you, and meet you in the silence.

Amen.

Please be seated.

The Gospel

Reader A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew 4:12-23

People Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest!

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned." From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fish for people." Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

One minute of silence follows.

Reflection

Margaret Henderson

A reflection is essentially based on a personal experience and is a great way to share what God is doing in our lives. When we listen to what God is doing in our brothers' and sisters' lives, we are likely to grow in greater awareness of how God works in our own lives.

One minute of silence follows.

Music for Meditation

More Love to Thee, O Christ

Arr. Gary Lanier

You may stand or kneel.

The Prayers of the People

Reader We bring to the Lord our hopes and cares, saying, "God of Wonder, hear our prayer." For God's people throughout the world, that we might do our part to give glory to God and to bring peace to earth.

People may add their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Reader God of Wonder,

People Hear our prayer.

For those gathered here, that we might take the Good News of the living God into the world, not only with our lips but in our lives.

People may add their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

God of Wonder,

Hear our prayer.

For all who are in darkness, and for all those in any need or trouble, that the light of the newborn Christ might fill their hearts and bring them hope.

People may add their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

God of Wonder,
Hear our prayer.

For the sick and the dying and those who care for them, that God might bless them this night with the gift of peace.

People may add their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

God of Wonder,
Hear our prayer.

For those who are becoming aware of the miraculous joy and peace that God has placed within them, and within every human being, that the awareness of this gift might be strengthened and confirmed.

People may add their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

God of Wonder,
Hear our prayer.

Confident in God's love, we place our needs before the newborn Christ, whose manger is the human heart and whose glory is any person alive to his Presence.
Amen.

Please be seated.

Candlelighting

We continue our prayers through the lighting of the votive candles as a symbol of our love and concern for others. During the instrumental music, you are welcome to light a single candle as a symbol of your prayers.

Candles are located at the front of the main aisle to the left and right.

Please stand.

The Peace

Celebrant Christ, the Good Shepherd, bind us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues

We love you, Holy God for not leaving us alone, because in Jesus you became tangible: hands touched him, tears touched him, generosity touched him. And he has touched us. That is why we are here. That is why across time and eternity we sing because we cannot keep silent:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high - est!

Celebrant continues

This sacrament began on the night of Jesus' arrest, when he and his disciples gathered round a table. During their meal, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed it, he broke it and said, 'This is my body. It is given for you. Do this to remember me.'

Later he took a cup of wine, and when he had blessed it he said, 'This cup is the new relationship with God made possible because of my death. Drink it, all of you, to remember me. I shall not share this with you again until I do so in God's coming kingdom.'

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All together.

We remember his death.

We proclaim his resurrection.

We await his coming in glory.

Celebrant continues

As we open ourselves to your generous hospitality, let your Spirit move among us and be present in the food we share so that this bread and wine become for us the living presence of Jesus. Amen.
