A Clear Call to Ordained Ministry

By Maggie FitzRoy

Margaret Henderson remembers the exact day and the exact time she experienced a dramatic spiritual conversion, what she calls “a baptism by the Holy Spirit.”

It was April 21, 2021, during the 11:15 a.m. Jordan Service at Christ Church, with Father Remington Slone preaching. Suddenly, she says, she was “overcome by a sense of the passion,” and “a release from the bondage of self, which was supernatural and unexpected and overwhelming.”

It was also the climax to months of reflection during the Covid shutdown, which had given her “the gift of space” to get clear on what she’d been experiencing as a call from God to become more involved in spreading the Gospel.

The experience was so powerful that over the next many months she entered a formal discernment process to determine if what she was feeling was a call to ordained ministry, a process that continues for her today. Margaret met regularly with Father Keith, her sponsoring priest.

Blessed with the support of her husband, Shawn, together she and he discerned that God was asking her to pursue the call full time, which meant shutting down her thriving business as a federal lobbyist in Washington D.C. She could no longer do her job, she says, “because I was so filled with a desire to study scripture and proclaim the Gospel and dedicate myself to this call. I had to make a choice.” Since the clients she represented as a lobbyist for 17 years were the American fishing industry, that call was amazingly clear: God was telling her to drop her net and follow him. It was a financial sacrifice she didn’t hesitate to make. She’d grown up in Christ Church and after high school had moved to Washington to work as a congressional staff member on Capitol Hill before starting her lobbyist business. When she and Shawn and their three children moved back to Ponte Vedra Beach in 2016, she’d continued commuting to Washington, maintaining “a manic” schedule that left little time for self-reflection. When the pandemic ended her commute, “that Covid space forced me to sit back and assess my vocation,” she says. “And it was during that time that the Holy Spirit worked its magic.”

After months of meeting with the Christ Church Discernment Committee, they affirmed her call, and so has the Christ Church clergy, the vestry, the Diocese Commission on Ministry, and The Right Reverend Samuel Johnson, Bishop of Florida, who has approved her as an Aspirant to Holy Orders. Her next step is an internship with a church in the diocese.

She is moved to proclaim the Gospel here at Christ Church as well. She co-hosts our Living Breathing Stories podcast, which gives guests an opportunity to testify to the work of God in their lives. And she co-leads the Living, Loving, Learning Women’s Bible Study. Filled with “love and immeasurable gratitude” for God’s clear call, Margaret says she realized, “I can’t keep it unless I give it away.”

Welcome to Christ Church, Ponte Vedra Beach!
We are delighted to have you worship with us, either in person or online.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!

Processional Hymn

O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing / Para que canten mil voces

Las glorias de Su majestad, los triunfos de Su amor

My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim
And spread through all the earth abroad the honors of thy Name.

En Cristo, pues, conocerán la gracia del perdón;
Y aquí del cielo gozarán, pues cierto es su amor

The Reading

Lector A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning.

No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: `In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 20:19-23

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

I am Yours, and You are mine. You call me out upon the waters,
The great unknown, where feet may fail. And there, I find You in the myst'ry.
In oceans deep, my faith will stand. And I will call upon Your name.

Refrain: And keep my eyes above the waves.
When oceans rise, my soul will rest in Your embrace,
For I am Yours, and You are mine. Oh, you are mine.

Your grace abounds in deepest waters.
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide.
Where feet my fail, when fear surrounds me.
You've never failed and You won't start now.
So I will call upon Your name, Refrain.

Spirit, lead me when my trust is without borders.
Let me walk upon the waters wherever You would call me.

And my faith will be made stronger
In the presence of my Savior. Refrain.

Refrain: Surely, the presence of the Lord is in this place,
I can feel His mighty power and His grace.
I can hear the brush of angels' wings, I see glory on each face,
Surely, the presence of the Lord is in this place.

In the midst of His children, the Lord said He would be.
It doesn't take very many, it can be just two or three.
And I feel that same sweet Spirit that I've felt oft times before.
Oh, surely, I can say I've been with the Lord. Refrain.

There's a holy hush around us as God's glory fills this place.
I've touched the hem of His garment, and I can almost see His face.
And my heart is overflowing with the fullness of His joy.
I know without a doubt that I've been with the Lord. Refrain.

The Lord Is My Shepherd

1. El Señor es mi pastor; nada me falta,
The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want,
En verdes praderas me hace recostar;
He makes me lie down in green pasture;
Me conduce hacia fuentes tranquilas
He leads me beside still waters
Y reparas mis fuerzas.
And repairs my strength.

2. He guides me along the right path, for the sake of his name.
Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
No evil would I fear, for you are with me.
Your crook and your staff will give me comfort.

3. Preparas una mesa ante mí en frente de mis enemigos,
You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies,
Me unges la cabeza con perfume y mi copa rebosa.
You anoint my head with oil and my cup overflows.

4. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's house shall I dwell for length of days unending.
