A Clear Call to Ordained Ministry

By Maggie FitzRoy

Margaret Henderson remembers the exact day and the exact time she experienced a dramatic spiritual conversion, what she calls “a baptism by the Holy Spirit.”

It was April 21, 2021, during the 11:15 a.m. Jordan Service at Christ Church, with Father Remington Slone preaching. Suddenly, she says, she was “overcome by a sense of the passion,” and “a release from the bondage of self, which was supernatural and unexpected and overwhelming.”

It was also the climax to months of reflection during the Covid shutdown, which had given her “the gift of space” to get clear on what she’d been experiencing as a call from God to become more involved in spreading the Gospel.

The experience was so powerful that over the next many months she entered a formal discernment process to determine if what she was feeling was a call to ordained ministry, a process that continues for her today. Margaret met regularly with Father Keith, her sponsoring priest.

Blessed with the support of her husband, Shawn, together she and he discerned that God was asking her to pursue the call full time, which meant shutting down her thriving business as a federal lobbyist in Washington D.C. She could no longer do her job, she says, “because I was so filled with a desire to study scripture and proclaim the Gospel and dedicate myself to this call. I had to make a choice.” Since the clients she represented as a lobbyist for 17 years were the American fishing industry, that call was amazingly clear: God was telling her to drop her net and follow him. It was a financial sacrifice she didn’t hesitate to make. She’d grown up in Christ Church and after high school had moved to Washington to work as a congressional staff member on Capitol Hill before starting her lobbyist business. When she and Shawn and their three children moved back to Ponte Vedra Beach in 2016, she’d continued commuting to Washington, maintaining “a manic” schedule that left little time for self-reflection. When the pandemic ended her commute, “that Covid space forced me to sit back and assess my vocation,” she says. “And it was during that time that the Holy Spirit worked its magic.”

After months of meeting with the Christ Church Discernment Committee, they affirmed her call, and so has the Christ Church clergy, the vestry, the Diocese Commission on Ministry, and The Right Reverend Samuel Johnson, Bishop of Florida, who has approved her as an Aspirant to Holy Orders. Her next step is an internship with a church in the diocese.

She is moved to proclaim the Gospel here at Christ Church as well. She co-hosts our Living Breathing Stories podcast, which gives guests an opportunity to testify to the work of God in their lives. And she co-leads the Living, Loving, Learning Women’s Bible Study. Filled with “love and immeasurable gratitude” for God’s clear call, Margaret says she realized, “I can’t keep it unless I give it away.”

The Reading

Lector      A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

Lector      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

The Gospel

Gospeler      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John                      20:19-23

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Gospeler      The Gospel of the Lord.

People      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

Sermon      The Reverend Keith Oglesby

Please stand as you are able.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form I

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Celebrant    Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Peace
