Christ Church's New Labyrinth

A Form of Walking Prayer

By Maggie FitzRoy

Pilgrimages to holy places were popular among early Christians, but making the long journey to the Holy Land was not possible for many. Seeking a similar spiritual experience closer to home, the faithful began using labyrinths— meandering walking paths that offer opportunities for spiritual reflection and prayer.

Christ Church now has its very own permanent outdoor garden labyrinth, tucked away in a quiet corner of the campus adjacent to the Memorial Garden, behind the Formation + Arts Building. Modeled on the Chartres Cathedral labyrinth in France, our Labyrinth was donated by a parishioner as a memorial gift. The garden surrounding it, featuring plants representative of different faith traditions, was installed by parishioner Trey Wilson.

Our New Labyrinth

A dedication and blessing ceremony will be held Wednesday, March 6 from 6 to 6:30 p.m. and all are invited to attend. Created from a custom stencil and then painted by a small team of staff and volunteers, the labyrinth “was a labor of love,” Deacon Leila Quinlan says. “It took four days to put down the pattern, then another couple of weeks to paint and detail the edges.”

The labyrinth design itself has many layers of symbolism. “All of the turns are symbolic of the path of life, which has lots of twists and turns,” Deacon Leila says.

The center, a six-lobed rosette, “represents the center of our lives and the center of our being, and the teeth around the outside symbolize Christ’s crown of thorns,” Deacon Leila says. “Labyrinths were popular with Christians during Lent because the center can be seen as going into a cave, letting go, and then as you come out, leading to resurrection.”

People may walk at any pace they choose, but it’s advised not to be in a hurry. Deacon Leila suggests that users take a moment to quiet their minds and set an intention for what they want to bring before God along the three-fold path of Purgation, Illumination and Union. “Release fears and worries as you go toward the middle, pray for understanding at the center, then walk out with a sense of union and assurance for whatever lies ahead.”

The experience may be different each time you walk it, and that’s a good thing. This is a spiritual practice that we can grow with over time. We’re so fortunate to have this garden and labyrinth on our campus for parishioners and community alike, it’s open to all!

*Welcome to Christ Church Ponte Vedra Beach! We are delighted to have you worship with us.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!*

The Reading

Lector A reading from the Book of Exodus

20:1-17

Then God spoke all these words: I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments. You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it. Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Song (11:15 a.m. Only) Renew Me by Rachel Kamps

This song, written by Rachel Kamps is being sung at all of our services during Lent in the musical style of each service.

Refrain

Renew me, Lord,
in the image of Your love
Renew me in the likeness of Your mercy, oh God (2x)

May any refusal to forgive
That lingers in me from the day
Any bitterness of soul that hardens my heart
Be softened by Your graces in the night

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 2:13-22

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Sermon The Reverend Laura Magevney

Please stand as you are able.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form V

Leader We pray to you, O Lord.

The People respond Lord, have mercy.

Leader Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

Final response To you, O Lord our God.

Celebrant Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Confession

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Please be seated.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer C

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood, he reconciled us.
By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Celebrant and People

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues with the Eucharistic Prayer.

Celebrant Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

Celebrant and People

We celebrate his death and resurrection,
as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Anthem at the Breaking of the Bread

Ris - en Lord, be known to us in the break - ing of the Bread.

Ris - en Lord be known to us in the break - ing of the Bread.

Please be seated.

Verse

never let me go
I lay it all down again
To hear You say that I'm Your friend
You are my desire
no one else will do
'Cause nothing else
could take Your place

To feel the warmth of Your embrace
Help me find the way
bring me back to You

Chorus

You're all I want
You're all I've ever needed
You're all I want
Help me know You are near

Ending

Help me know You are here

After the service, we recess outside to remember Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane.
