Inspiring a Love for Cooking

By Maggie FitzRoy

It's a camp like no other. No arts and crafts, no sleeping in tents, no hiking through the woods. Instead, Nourishing Eats campers learn kitchen etiquette, safety, how to read recipes, and how to prepare and present French cuisine. They also learn teamwork, and how to be adventurous when it comes to trying new foods.

Nourishing Eats Culinary Camp, led by Hospitality Director Jen De Rycker and her "sous chef" assistant Doreen Pardue, is offered every summer at Christ Church, with two sessions scheduled this year, one in June and one in July.

A huge fan of the four-day-long camp, Gregory Scales, 15, has attended every year since grade school. "It's his favorite camp ever, and he's done many camps in his life," says his mom, Tracie. "It's so unique, and Chef Jen is so encouraging. She takes what I consider advanced French recipes and makes it fun."

Campers begin by learning etiquette and safety, including how to move through a kitchen with awareness of what they and others are doing, including calling out "knife," when carrying one, or "hot behind you" when handling a steaming dish.

Everything campers prepare is fresh and healthy, says Jen, a Cordon Bleu trained chef who uses Cordon Bleu recipes at the camp. Nothing is processed and everything is made from scratch. "The goal is to get the kids to do things they've never done and eat things they've never had before." Which means keeping recipes a secret until the last minute so no one can decide in advance they won't like it, she says. "I tell them they have to taste it, and they always end up liking it."

In the past, campers have made Gateau Basque, a French dessert; Coq au vin, chicken braised with wine; pork loin with mushrooms in a cognac cream sauce; crepes served with a variety of fillings; and Crème Brulee, a rich dessert made with cream, vanilla, salt, eggs, and sugar.

Chef Jen won't divulge what recipes she will teach this summer during the camp's two sessions—Monday, June 17 through Thursday, June 20 and Monday, July 15 through Thursday, July 18. But she says campers are sure to learn a lot, and like what they make, which they get to take home to their families.

"We love that part," Tracie says. "The food is extraordinary."

The cost of the four-day camp is $260 per camper. For more information, contact Jen De Rycker at jderycker@ccpvb.org.

THE WORD OF GOD

Prelude

Sung Medley

Please stand.

Processional Hymn 448

O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High

Vs. 1-3

O love, how deep, how broad, how high,
How passing thought and fantasy,
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake.

For us baptized, for us he bore
His holy fast and hungered sore;
For us temptations sharp he knew;
For us the tempter overthrew.

For us he prayed; for us he taught;
For us his daily works he wrought:
By words and signs and actions, thus
Still seeking not himself, but us.

The Reading

Lector            A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

8:26-40

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, “Go over to this chariot and join it.” So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” He replied, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: “Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth.”

The eunuch asked Philip, “About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?” Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?” He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Gospel Song PSB 83

I Love to Tell the Story

(V. 1 & Refrain)

I love to tell the story of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory, of Jesus and His love.
I love to tell the story because I know tis true,
It satisfies my longings as nothing else can do.

Refrain: I love to tell the story; 'twill be my theme in glory.
To tell the old, old story of Jesus and His love.

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 15:1-8

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

The Bakery Book Exchange invites you to “Stop the Summer Slide” by supplying summer enrichment workbooks to local elementary and middle school-aged children served by Blessings in a Backpack. You can purchase a workbook from the Bakery Book Exchange Amazon gift list. Stop by our table outside Westbury Hall on May 5 from 8:45-11:15 a.m. to receive a treat in appreciation for your order. We will also be collecting used books as well! If you have any questions or are interested in volunteering, please contact Charlotte Peverley at bakerybookexchange@gmail.com.

Pentecost Sunday

May 19

Pentecost is a moveable feast in which we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the disciples of Jesus after his Ascension. All are encouraged to wear bright colors of reds, oranges, or yellows, symbolizing the flame of the Holy Spirit. As Pentecost is informally considered the “birthday” of the Church, we invite you to participate in a cake contest! Details to follow.
