HOLY EUCHARIST: CONTEMPLATIVE

The Seventh Sunday of Easter

· May 12, 2024 · 5:00 p.m. · Church ·

DID YOU KNOW?

Christ Church is a loving community that includes and welcomes everyone, at any point in life and from any background, offering opportunities to engage and grow in faith at every age and situation, helping you develop in your relationship with God.

We offer Sunday worship in nine services across two sites. Our average weekly worship attendance is 914 in person, and 240 online. We also host the largest Hispanic congregation in our diocese.

As a church family we celebrated 51 Baptisms and 15 Weddings in 2023. We mourned together at 38 Funerals, and we welcomed 14 students and 10 adults into the life of the church through Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation of faith.

100s of children and youth participate in our Family Ministry programs, which provide essential spiritual formation, fellowship, and support. 100s of children attend Christ Church Preschool, and their families are frequent visitors to our campus.

Bible studies, book studies and small groups meet on and off campus nearly every day of the week. Love First Vacation Bible Study hosted 240 children and youth in 2023.

In addition to the nearly 400 children and adult Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts who meet on our Ponte Vedra Campus, we host 100s of community meetings and events throughout the year, including our annual Community Oyster Roast & Cookout which has grown along with our campus, to serve some 600-800 attendees.

12 step programs meet here nearly every day of the week, and our Recovery Ministry hosts workshops throughout the year, connecting people with resources.

The Creative Academy at Christ Church engages 100s of families and 1,000s of attendees in arts lessons, rehearsals, exhibits and performances.

These are just a few of the activities that happen here because you care. Find a more complete picture of who we are and how you can get involved at ccpvb.org.

*Welcome to Christ Church Ponte Vedra Beach! We are delighted to have you worship with us.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!*

THE WORD OF GOD

Silence for Prayer

This contemplative service is preceded by a period of silence at 4:50 p.m.

Prelude

Prelude on Beach Spring

Arr. Eric Carlson

Please stand at the sound of the bell.

Opening Sentences

Lector

Risen Lord, we come to adore you.
We desire to know you as living Lord
And to experience your vitality within us.
Break the seals, Lord, roll away the stone, rip open the protecting bandages.

People

Breathe the breath of life into our hearts.

Risen Lord, we come to worship you.
The world waits for your coming through us.
We want to be filled with joy and to have the freedom to be your true disciples.

People

You breathe the breath of life into our hearts,
and by Your resurrection, we are made new.

First Hymn

Thy Word

Refrain: Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.
Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

When I feel afraid, think I've lost my way,
Still You're there right beside me,
And nothing will I fear as long as You are near:
Please be near me to the end. Refrain
I will not forget your love for me and yet

My heart forever is wandering:
Jesus be my guide and hold me to Your side,
And I will love You to the end. Refrain

Prayer for the Evening

For the quietness that surrounds us and your promise of peace deep within us, for the stillness of sleep for our bodies, and the hope of healing for our souls, thanks be to you, O God. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Servant Christ, help us to follow you out of the dark tomb, to share daily your resurrection life, to be renewed daily in your image of love, to be used daily as your new Body in your service to the world. Servant Christ, help us to follow you. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Gospel

Reader A reading from the Gospel according to John 17:6-19

People Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest!

Jesus prayed for his disciples, “I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

One minute of silence follows.

Reflection

The Rev. Eric Kahl

A reflection is essentially based on a personal experience and is a great way to share what God is doing in our lives. When we listen to what God is doing in our brothers' and sisters' lives, we are likely to grow in greater awareness of how God works in our own lives.

One minute of silence follows.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Alleluia! What was dead shall live; what was dark shall shine; what was forgotten shall be remembered, for the Lord is risen and walks among us. Let us confidently bring before God the needs of all our world, asking God for renewal, saying: Christ is risen, Christ is risen indeed.

God of life, in gratitude and great joy we laud you for the gifts of Christ's resurrection. On this season give us hope, for Christ is risen:

People Christ is risen indeed.

On this season which brings joy to all Christian believers, may we commit ourselves to work toward the unity of the church, that Christ's body may be one, for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

Honoring the gift of Christ's risen body, may we rise to serve all those whose needs keep them from seeing themselves as the image of God;
for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

For all who have need of the gift of Easter; for all who journey from illness to health, from despair to hope, from grief to consolation, from loneliness to love; for all our brothers and sisters,

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

That death may have no more power over us, for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

For all who suffer and all who mourn, that today the Lord God will wipe away all tears,

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

May we have the persistent faith of Mary Magdalene and the surprised belief of Peter and John. May we long to be God's sign of life in our world, for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

May we be one in faith with all who have died in Christ, for our life is hid with Christ in God; for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

God of life, we thank you for the mystery planted in us, the paradox of life from death, and community from scattered disciples. We praise you for the dying which saves us from death and for the rising which brings us life. We pray, as we live, through Jesus the risen one, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

Candlelighting

We continue our prayers through the lighting of the votive candles as a symbol of our love and concern for others. During the instrumental music, you are welcome to light a single candle as a symbol of your prayers.

Candles are located at the front of the main aisle to the left and right.

Please stand.

The Peace

Celebrant Angels said it to frightened shepherds, Jesus said it to dismayed disciples.
And now these words which come from heaven are given to reconcile us to God and to each other: 'Peace be with you'.

People And also with you.

Let us share this peace with each other.

Please be seated.

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death.

With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high - est!

Celebrant continues

We praise you that in Jesus you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them, saying:

All together

“This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me.”

So, too, after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them, saying:

All together

“This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me.”

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All together

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant continues

Come now, Spirit of God, and as we eat and drink these bodily things, make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

This is the table of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little; you who have been here often and you who have not been here long; you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

Please be seated.

Help us to recognize and honor your Presence in one another, to treat each other with reverence and humility, and to become, more and more, the people we already are in you. Amen.
