Youth Sunday 2024

Today is Youth and Graduation Sunday. Through their participation in worship today, and the celebration of our graduating seniors, we hope you have an opportunity to see how God is moving and working through our young people here and now, and in the future. We are blessed with a thriving youth program that seeks to give our youth a space to grow closer with God, each other, and learn more about what it means to be followers of Jesus that have a meaningful impact on our community and the world. In big and small ways, our youth point us to the living God through their wonder and energizing presence.

We also celebrate the Class of 2024 Graduates. Our prayer for them is that they head into the next chapter of their lives with the knowledge that they are loved by God and cherished by this faith community. We look forward to watching them continue to learn and grow as they embark on a new adventure at college and beyond!

Special congratulations to the students receiving the Rector's Award: Charlotte Peverley and Garrett Davidsen. These two excellent students have been an integral part of the church through their work in the community. Garrett has served on the Outreach Committee and has taken on leadership roles on several initiatives there. Charlotte has helped create and manage the Bakery Book Exchange, a ministry which seeks to provide books and other literacy materials to people around Jacksonville in underserved communities. We are so proud of them and their commitment to sharing God's love with their gifts and talents. If you see them around campus, be sure to congratulate them!

It takes a village to walk alongside a community of young people as they learn and grow. We are so thankful for our clergy, youth volunteers, and other amazing adults who walk alongside them in their faith journey!

*Welcome to Christ Church Ponte Vedra Beach! We are delighted to have you worship with us.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!*

THE WORD OF GOD

Silence for Prayer

This contemplative service is preceded by a period of silence at 4:50 p.m.

Prelude

I Must Tell Jesus

Arr. Heather Sorenson

Please stand at the sound of the bell.

Opening Sentences

Lector

Risen Lord, we come to adore you.
We desire to know you as living Lord
And to experience your vitality within us.
Break the seals, Lord, roll away the stone, rip open the protecting bandages.

People

Breathe the breath of life into our hearts.

Risen Lord, we come to worship you.
The world waits for your coming through us.
We want to be filled with joy and to have the freedom to be your true disciples.

People

You breathe the breath of life into our hearts, and by Your resurrection, we are made new.

First Hymn

In Christ There Is No East or West

In Christ there is no east or west,
In him no south or north, but one community of love
Throughout the whole wide earth.

In Christ shall true hearts ev'rywhere
Their high communion find; his service is the golden cord,
Close binding humankind.

Join hands, disciples of the faith,
Whate'er your race may be; all children of the living God
Are surely kin to me.

Prayer for the Evening

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Servant Christ, help us to follow you out of the dark tomb, to share daily your resurrection life, to be renewed daily in your image of love, to be used daily as your new Body in your service to the world. Servant Christ, help us to follow you. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Gospel

Reader A reading from the Gospel according to John 15:9-17

People Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest!

Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

One minute of silence follows.

Reflection

Brooks Slater

A reflection is essentially based on a personal experience and is a great way to share what God is doing in our lives. When we listen to what God is doing in our brothers' and sisters' lives, we are likely to grow in greater awareness of how God works in our own lives.

One minute of silence follows.

The Prayers of the People

Reader

Alleluia! What was dead shall live; what was dark shall shine; what was forgotten shall be remembered, for the Lord is risen and walks among us. Let us confidently bring before God the needs of all our world, asking God for renewal, saying: Christ is risen, Christ is risen indeed.

God of life, in gratitude and great joy we laud you for the gifts of Christ's resurrection. On this season give us hope, for Christ is risen:

People

Christ is risen indeed.

On this season which brings joy to all Christian believers, may we commit ourselves to work toward the unity of the church, that Christ's body may be one, for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

Honoring the gift of Christ's risen body, may we rise to serve all those whose needs keep them from seeing themselves as the image of God; for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

For all who have need of the gift of Easter; for all who journey from illness to health, from despair to hope, from grief to consolation, from loneliness to love; for all our brothers and sisters,

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

That death may have no more power over us, for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

For all who suffer and all who mourn, that today the Lord God will wipe away all tears,

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

May we have the persistent faith of Mary Magdalene and the surprised belief of Peter and John. May we long to be God's sign of life in our world, for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

May we be one in faith with all who have died in Christ, for our life is hid with Christ in God; for Christ is risen:

Christ is risen indeed.

God of life, we thank you for the mystery planted in us, the paradox of life from death, and community from scattered disciples. We praise you for the dying which saves us from death and for the rising which brings us life. We pray, as we live, through Jesus the risen one, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

Candlelighting

We continue our prayers through the lighting of the votive candles as a symbol of our love and concern for others. During the instrumental music, you are welcome to light a single candle as a symbol of your prayers.

Candles are located at the front of the main aisle to the left and right.

Please stand.

The Peace

Celebrant

Angels said it to frightened shepherds, Jesus said it to dismayed disciples. And now these words which come from heaven are given to reconcile us to God and to each other: 'Peace be with you'.

People

And also with you.

Let us share this peace with each other.

Please be seated.

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues

O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death.

With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high - est!

Celebrant continues

We praise you that in Jesus you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them, saying:

All together

“This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me.”

So, too, after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them, saying:

All together

“This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me.”

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All together

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant continues

Come now, Spirit of God, and as we eat and drink these bodily things, make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Cantor As our Sa - vior Christ has taught us we now pray,

All Our Fa - ther in hea - ven, hal - lowed be your Name, your king - dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea - ven.
Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for - give those who sin a - gainst us. Save us from the time of tri - al, and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the power, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant This is the true bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

People Whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia.

Lamb of God

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, Re - deem - er, re - deem - er of the world, do - na no - bis pa - cem, do - na no - bis pa - cem, do - na no - bis pa - cem.

Celebrant continues

This is the table of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little; you who have been here often and you who have not been here long; you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

Please be seated.

Distribution of Communion

Please join us at God's table.

All people, including children, are invited to receive Communion. Gluten-free wafers are also available. If you would prefer not to take Communion but would like a blessing, please fold your arms across your chest.

Communion Music

The Servant Song

1. Will you let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.
2. We are pilgrims on a journey, we are trav'lers on the road;
We are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.
3. I will hold the Christ-light for you, in the nighttime of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you, speak the peace you long to hear.
4. I will weep when you are weeping, when you laugh, I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow, 'till we've seen this journey through.
5. When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such harmony,
Born of all we've known together, of Christ's love and agony.
6. Will you let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you?
Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

A brief moment of silence follows.

After Communion Music Bless the Lord My Soul

The image shows a musical score for two systems of music. Each system consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is one flat (Bb) and the time signature is 4/4. The first system of music has the lyrics: "Bless the Lord my soul and bless God's ho - ly name." The second system of music has the lyrics: "Bless the Lord my soul, Who leads me in - to life." The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines in both hands, with some accidentals like flats and sharps.

After Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God, we give you thanks that in the sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood, you awaken us to your indwelling Presence and our true life. Help us to recognize and honor your Presence in one another, to treat each other with reverence and humility, and to become, more and more, the people we already are in you. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May the light and love of God shine in our hearts and through the universe that the whole creation may be transfigured to glory, in and through Jesus Christ, radiant in the splendour of the wounds of love. Amen.
