*"Do not be afraid, for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people:
to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.*

- Luke 2:11-12

WELCOME!

Welcome to Christ Church this Christmas Eve for the celebration of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. On this holy night, we hope you find our church to be a holy place of comfort and peace, and we invite you to join Christ Church as we respond to God's presence among us. In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!

Merry Christmas!

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Friends, and Visitors,

As we gather to celebrate the birth of our Savior, we are reminded of the joy and hope that fills our hearts this Christmas season. The birth of Christ is a beacon of light in a world that often feels dark and troubled. In the midst of challenges—whether they be hunger, homelessness, violence, or conflict—our King comes to us, not in power and glory, but in the simplicity of a manger. His vulnerability is the very essence of His love for us, showing us that true strength lies in compassion, humility, and self-giving.

This Christmas, as we reflect on the nativity story, we are invited to enter into the spirit of the season with hearts full of joy and gratitude. Just as Mary rejoiced in the gift of her son, and Joseph protected and cared for his family, we too are called to embrace each other with kindness and generosity. Like the angels who sang with praise and the shepherds who hurried to witness the miracle, we too are called to share the good news of God's love with the world.

Amid the busyness of the season—amid the lights, the songs, the trees—let us pause and remember that this celebration is about more than just festive moments. It is about standing in awe of the King who came to redeem us, whose light shines in the darkness, and whose love is made manifest in our care for one another.

In the coming days, let us be mindful of those who are most in need of love, shelter, and hope. Whether it be those struggling with poverty, homelessness, or the brokenness of the world around us, we are called to journey with them, just as Mary and Joseph had to journey to Bethlehem. By reaching out in love, we encounter the newborn King Himself, who is present in every act of compassion and kindness.

As we celebrate this sacred season, let us also remember the response of the shepherds, who said, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us" (Luke 2:15).

Let us worship and adore him!
