

CHRISTMAS EVE

Holy Eucharist: Rite II 10:00 p.m. Main Sanctuary

*"Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people:
to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.*

- Luke 2:11-12

Merry Christmas!

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Friends, and Visitors,

As we gather to celebrate the birth of our Savior, we are reminded of the joy and hope that fills our hearts this Christmas season. The birth of Christ is a beacon of light in a world that often feels dark and troubled. In the midst of challenges—whether they be hunger, homelessness, violence, or conflict—our King comes to us, not in power and glory, but in the simplicity of a manger. His vulnerability is the very essence of His love for us, showing us that true strength lies in compassion, humility, and self-giving.

This Christmas, as we reflect on the nativity story, we are invited to enter into the spirit of the season with hearts full of joy and gratitude. Just as Mary rejoiced in the gift of her son, and Joseph protected and cared for his family, we too are called to embrace each other with kindness and generosity. Like the angels who sang with praise and the shepherds who hurried to witness the miracle, we too are called to share the good news of God's love with the world.

Amid the busyness of the season—amid the lights, the songs, the trees—let us pause and remember that this celebration is about more than just festive moments. It is about standing in awe of the King who came to redeem us, whose light shines in the darkness, and whose love is made manifest in our care for one another.

In the coming days, let us be mindful of those who are most in need of love, shelter, and hope. Whether it be those struggling with poverty, homelessness, or the brokenness of the world around us, we are called to journey with them, just as Mary and Joseph had to journey to Bethlehem. By reaching out in love, we encounter the newborn King Himself, who is present in every act of compassion and kindness.

As we celebrate this sacred season, let us also remember the response of the shepherds, who said, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us" (Luke 2:15).

Let us worship and adore him!

Hymn 109

The First Nowell

The First Nowell

The first Nowell, the angel did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds, in fields, as they lay;
In fields, where they lay, keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Refrain Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, born is the King of Israel.

They looked up, and saw a star,
Shining in the east, beyond them, far,
And, to the earth, it gave great light,
And so, it continued, both day and night. Refrain

Hymn 99

Go, Tell It on the Mountain

Refrain Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills, and everywhere;
Go, tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!

While shepherds kept their watching, o'er silent flocks by night,
Behold, throughout the heavens, there shown a holy light. Refrain.

The shepherds feared and trembled, when lo! Above the earth,
Rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth. Refrain.

It Came Upon a Midnight Clear

Edmund H. Sears, Richard S. Willis,

Men's Ensemble: Joseph Murray, Ian Bula,

and Joel Raney

Gage Williams, Dale Patrick, Jarvis Ramil, Zachary Russell, and Tim Root

It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth, to touch their harps of gold.

"Peace on the earth, goodwill to all from heaven's all-gracious King."
The world, in solemn stillness lay, to hear the angels sing.

Still, through the cloven skies they come, with peaceful wings unfurled,
And still, their heavenly music floats, o'er all the weary world rejoice!
All the world rejoice!

For, lo, the days are hastening on, by prophets seen of old,
When, with the ever-circling years, shall come the time foretold.

When peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling,
And all the world give back the song which now, the angels sing.

Hymn 112

In the Bleak Midwinter

Cranham

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter, long ago.
Our God, Heav'n cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;
Heav'n and earth shall flee away, when He comes to reign:
In the bleak midwinter, a stable place sufficed,
The Lord God incarnate, Jesus Christ.
Angels and archangels may have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;
But his mother only, in her maiden bliss,
Worshipped the Beloved with a kiss.
What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
Yet what I can I give him-give my heart.

Hymn 101

Away in a Manger

Cradle Song

Away in a manger, no crib for his bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky, looked down, where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the sky,
And stay by my side, until morning is nigh.

Hymn 110

The Snow Lay on the Ground

Venite adoremus

The snow lay on the ground, the stars shone bright,
When Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
Venite adoremus Dominum. Venite adoremus Dominum.

Refrain Venite adoremus Dominum. Venite adoremus Dominum.

'Twas Mary, daughter pure of holy Anne,
That brought, into this world, the God made man.
She laid him in a stall, at Bethlehem;
The ass and oxen shared the roof, with them. Refrain

The Lesson

Reader A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah. 9:2-4, 6-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

The Gospel Song Angels We Have Heard on High Gloria

Hymn 96 Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night,
And the mountains, in reply, echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Come to Bethlehem, and see, Him, whose birth, the angels sing;
Come, adore, on bended knee, Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria in excelsis Deo.

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. 2:1-20

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see — I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

For the church of Christ, that it may faithfully proclaim the good news of salvation and may care for the needs of God's people in all corners of the world, we pray to you, O Lord.

Sanctus

S 129, The Hymnal

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

You may kneel or sit.

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father:

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Hymn 102 Once in Royal David's City Irby

Once, in royal David's city, stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby, in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ, her little child.
He came down to earth, from heaven, who is God, and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall;
With the poor, the scorned, the lowly, lived on Earth, our Savior holy.

Hymn 81 Lo, How a Rose E'er Bloomin Es ist ein Ros

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming, from tender stem hath sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming, as seers of old have sung.
It came, a blossom bright, amid the cold of winter, when half spent was the night.
Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the Rose I have in mind,
With Mary, we behold it, the Virgin Mother kind.
To show God's love aright, she bore to us a Savior, when half spent was the night.

Still, Still, Still Men's Ensemble

Norman Luboff, Marilyn Keith, and Alan Bergman

Still, still, still, one can hear the falling snow,
For all is hushed, the world is sleeping,
Holy Star, its vigil keeping.

Still, still, still, one can hear the falling snow,
Sleep, sleep, sleep, 'tis the eve of our Savior's birth.
The night is peaceful, all around you,
Close your eyes, let sleep surround you.

Sleep, sleep, sleep, 'tis the eve of our Savior's birth.
Dream, dream, dream of the joyous day to come,
While guardian angels, without number, watch you, as you sweetly slumber.
Dream, dream, dream of the joyous day to come.

Hymn 79

O Little Town of Bethlehem

St. Louis

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep, the silent stars go by;
Yet, in thy dark streets, shineth the everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary; and, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing, to God, the King, and peace to men, on earth.

Hymn 115

What Child Is This?

What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, while shepherds watch are keeping?

Refrain This, this is Christ the King, whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud,
the babe, the son of Mary.

Why lies he in such mean estate where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear: for sinners here the silent Word is pleading. Refrain
So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh, come, peasant, king, to own him:
The King of kings salvation brings, let loving hearts enthrone him. Refrain

Hymn 82

Of the Father's Love

Divinum mysterium

Of the Father's love begotten, ere the worlds began to be,
He is Alpha and Omega, he the source, the ending he,
Of the things that are, that have been, and that future years shall see,
Evermore and evermore!

O that birth, forever blessed, when the Virgin, full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving, bore the Savior of our race;
And the Babe, the world's Redeemer, first revealed his sacred face,
Evermore and evermore!

Hymn 89

It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

Carol

It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old,
From angels bending, near the earth, to touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men, from heaven's all-gracious King."
The world, in solemn stillness, lay to hear the angels sing.
Still, through the cloven skies, they come with peaceful wings unfurled,
And still, their heavenly music floats o'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains, they bend on hovering wing,
And ever, o'er its Babel sounds, the blessed angels sing.

You may kneel.

Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Candlelighting

The Acolytes and ushers will light the candle of the first person in each pew, who will then pass the flame to their neighbor until every candle is lit. During this time, the choir will sing "Night of Silence." Once all candles are lit, the congregation will join together in singing "Silent Night." At the conclusion, please extinguish your candle and leave it in the basket provided in the entryway as you exit the church.

Kneeling Hymn

Silent Night

Stille Nacht

Hymn 111 Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright.
Round yon virgin mother, and child. Holy infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace. Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love's pure light.
Radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth. Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

The Christmas Blessing

Celebrant May the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wise men, the obedience of Joseph and Mary, and the peace of the Christ child be yours this Christmas; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Please stand.

Recessional Hymn

Joy to the World!

Antioch

Hymn 100 Joy to the world! The Lord is come: let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing, and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.
Joy to the world! The Savior reigns; let us our songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains, repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.
No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found,
Far as the curse is found, far as, far as the curse is found.
He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness, and wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love, and wonders, wonders of his love.

Meeting every other week, usually on Thursday evenings, Sacred Ground's 10 sessions walks participants through this life-changing pilgrimage. Brochures with full schedule are in the church entryway. The world has changed.

And at times we feel further apart than ever before.

But, two things haven't changed:

God's Unwavering Love, and our need for each other.

With that comes the love that Christ Church has for you—all of you.

Because no matter if you attend virtually or in-person.

If you're Episcopalian or Non-Denominational.

Young or Old. Lean Left or Right.

Through the love of Jesus Christ, we are one.

Christ Church is not just a place, it's a community.

It's not just what you do on Sunday, it's how you live every day.

With opportunities to grow, learn, create, worship, praise, connect, serve, and thrive.

We are a church centered around Christ.

We are a community centered around Christ

We are the community of Christ Church.
