

The Second Sunday in Lent
Holy Eucharist: Contemplative
March 16, 2025 5:00 p.m.

Sunday. Every Day.

INTO THE WILDERNESS

By Pedro Figueroa

My wilderness experience began with a divorce that left me feeling empty; no home, car, furniture, family, except my teenage son, and I didn't know how to deal with him. He was left shattered to pieces, emotionally and spiritually. I gave it all up to start anew with my son. So, I found myself struggling to cope with it all, alone. Without any adult interaction or support.

Along came my tempter. A man that was not concerned with my family status, or failure thereof. He made me feel valued, important. He always spoke words of affirmation, made me feel confident again! Then during Advent, he asked me for money to buy his wife a set of diamond earrings that were on sale, and the sale would end before his pay day. He just needed the money to take advantage of the sale and he would pay me back on his pay day. So, I did, I drew money from the savings account. Leaving me virtually with no money until he paid me back. That was the last I saw of him.

I was furious! I had been conned! I was hurt, angry, wanting revenge or at a minimum, justice! So, I began to pray and read the Holy Scriptures. I was led by the Holy Spirit to read Luke 6:27-38. Read it for yourself. It was a hard scripture to read at that time, because it did not give me what I wanted to hear concerning this matter and this con-artist.

Our Heavenly Father was asking me to do the following: to love him, bless him, pray for him, have mercy for him, forgive him and his debt, don't ask for the money, don't judge or condemn him! He also reminded me all of the love, blessings, intercessions, mercies, forgiveness, paid debt with no judgement or condemnation He has for me! So, I put into action with what only faith in Christ can do, and obeyed.

Within a week the money I lent was restored and multiplied with no effort from me or my debtor. Not only was I restored financially, but Our Father also gave the eternal treasures of love, forgiveness, mercy, peace and joy! Till this day I pray for that man, that Our Savior may reveal Himself and His Love to him.

Go in Peace ~ Pedro

The Gospel

Reader A reading from the Gospel according to Luke

13:31-35

People Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest!

Some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." He said to them, "Go and tell that fox for me, 'Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.' Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

One minute of silence follows.

Reflection

The Reverend Laura Magevney

A reflection is essentially based on a personal experience and is a great way to share what God is doing in our lives. When we listen to what God is doing in our brothers' and sisters' lives, we are likely to grow in greater awareness of how God works in our own lives.

One minute of silence follows.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory

Lord, I Stretch My Hands to You

Jay Althouse

Please stand.

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues

It is indeed right and good to give you thanks and praise, almighty God and everlasting Father, through Jesus Christ your Son. For in these forty days you lead us into the desert of repentance that through a pilgrimage of prayer and discipline we may grow in grace and learn to be your people once again.

Through fasting, prayer and acts of service you bring us back to your generous heart. Through study of your holy word you open our eyes to your presence in the world and free our hands to welcome others into the radiant splendor of your love.

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high - est!

Celebrant continues

We praise you for Jesus Christ, born of peasant parents, friend of lepers and tax collectors, who chose a life given up for others. On the night before he died, he shared a meal with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying: “This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me.” After supper he took a cup of wine, blessed it and gave it to them saying: “This is my life-blood poured out for you. Do this to remember me.”

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All together.

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant continues

Come now Holy Spirit of God. Come upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine, that in sharing this feast we may become the body of Christ. Break down the walls of selfishness and fear and bring us all to the new age in which none go hungry and all are fed. Through Christ, with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Cantor As our Sa - vior Christ has taught us we now pray,

All Our Fa - ther in hea - ven, hal - lowed be your Name,
 your king - dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea - ven.
 Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for - give those who sin a - gainst us. Save us from the time of tri - al, and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the power, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Blessed are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.

People Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the Bread.

Lamb of God

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, Re - deem - er, re - deem - er of the world, do - na no - bis pa - cem, do - na no - bis pa - cem, do - na no - bis pa - cem.

Celebrant continues

This is the table of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little; you who have been here often and you who have not been here long; you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

Please be seated.

Distribution of Communion

Please join us at God's table.

All people, including children, are invited to receive Communion. Gluten-free wafers are also available. If you would prefer not to take Communion but would like a blessing, please fold your arms across your chest.

Communion Music

Taste and See

Refrain:

Taste and see.

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

O Taste and see.

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.

- 1 I will bless the Lord at all times.
His praise shall always be on my lips;
My soul shall glory in the Lord;
For He has been so good to me. Refrain.
- 2 Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us all praise His name.
I called the Lord and He answered me;
From all my troubles He set me free. Refrain.
- 3 Worship the Lord all you people.
You'll want for nothing if you ask.
Taste and see that God is good;
In Him we need put all our trust. Refrain.

Two minutes of silence follow.

After Communion Music Ubi Caritas

U - bi ca - ri - tas et a - mor,
Live in char - i - ty and stead - fast love,

u - bi ca - ri - tas De - us i - bi est.
live in char - i - ty; God will dwell with you.

The musical score is written on two staves in 2/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of lyrics, with a fermata over the word 'fast'. The second staff contains the melody for the second line of lyrics, with a triplet of eighth notes under the word 'dwell'.

After Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Grant, Almighty God, that your people may recognize their weakness and put their whole trust in your strength, so that they may rejoice for ever in the protection of your loving providence; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holy Communion Class for Children and Parents

Sunday, April 6, 10:15-11:00 AM, Room 124

In the Episcopal tradition, all baptized persons are invited to receive communion, including children. Parents, in conversation with their child, determine the best time for their child to receive. Many children receive the bread as soon as they are old enough to hold it, while some families choose to have their children wait until they are a bit older to receive communion. The Holy Communion class is designed for children to learn about the sacraments of the Holy Eucharist. The focus of the class is on the gift of water and God's Holy Spirit at Baptism, and the coming together in communion, for the shared meal of bread and wine. During the class, children receive instruction on how to receive the communion bread and wine as they learn about the traditions of our Episcopal worship. Parents are welcome to attend as well!

As we follow Jesus' path to the Cross we remember the Last Supper with his disciples and Jesus' commission to a servant's life as he washed their feet in John 13. The Eucharist this evening is especially poignant as we remember Jesus celebrating his Last Supper with His disciples. After the service, we recess outside to remember Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Prayer Vigil

The Cooper Chapel will be open overnight for those who wish to come and pray. Please be mindful of others as you enter the space. There will be security presence on campus throughout the evening.
