

PALM SUNDAY

"BLESSED IS THE KING
WHO COMES IN THE
NAME OF THE LORD!
PEACE IN HEAVEN,
AND GLORY IN THE HIGHEST HEAVEN!"

7:30 A.M.
HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

We're honored to have you worship with us today.

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of the most sacred week of the Christian year—Holy Week. As we gather today, we wave palm branches and join the crowd in welcoming Jesus into Jerusalem. The joyful, triumphal entry we celebrate is only the beginning of the profound journey we undertake this week.

This liturgy carries a deep significance as it transitions from a celebration of Christ's kingship to the somber reflection on His Passion. As we read the Passion narrative, we move from the cries of "Hosanna!" to the grief of "Crucify Him!"—a shift that mirrors the emotional depth of our faith.

Palm Sunday invites us to slow down and focus our hearts and minds on the extraordinary story of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. It is a reminder that, in the Christian life, joy and sorrow are often intertwined as we walk with Jesus on the road to the cross.

We invite you to join us throughout Holy Week, particularly for the full celebration of the Triduum—the three holy days of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter. These services mark the pinnacle of the Christian liturgical calendar and provide a space for deep reflection, prayer, and the renewal of our faith.

Holy Week is an invitation to journey with Christ, from His Last Supper with the disciples to His crucifixion and ultimately to the joy of the Resurrection.

We hope that this sacred time draws you closer to the heart of our faith and strengthens your connection to the living Christ.

WORSHIP GROW LOVE

*Welcome to Christ Church Ponte Vedra Beach! We are delighted to have you worship with us.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!*

THE LITURGY OF THE PALMS

Starting at the altar, the celebrant begins with:

Celebrant Blessed is the King who cometh in the name of the Lord.

People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with thy help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby thou hast given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lesson

A Reading from the Gospel according to Luke

19:28-40

After telling a parable to the crowd at Jericho, Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying,

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Blessing of the Palms

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

Please hold up your palm fronds for a blessing.

Celebrant continues.

It is right to praise thee, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which thou hast redeemed us through thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way.

Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant, we beseech thee, that we who bear them in his name may evermore hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, One God, world without end. Amen.

Celebrant Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord.

People Hosanna in the highest.

First Hymn 154 All Glory, Laud, and Honor

Vs. 1 - 3

Refrain All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King!
To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

Thou art the King of Israel, thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's Name comest, the King and Blesséd One. Refrain

The company of angels is praising thee on high;
And we, with all creation, in chorus, make reply. Refrain

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
Our praise, and prayers, and anthems, before thee, we present. Refrain

THE WORD OF GOD

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

Reflection

The Reverend Andreis Diaz

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

The congregation remains seated for the first part of the Passion narrative. Please join in the sections marked "All."

The assembly of the elders of the people rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate. They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king." Then Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He answered, "You say so." Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for an accusation against this man." But they were insistent and said, "He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place."

When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. And when he learned that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time. When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer. The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then he put an elegant robe on him, and sent him back to Pilate. That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.

Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him. Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death. I will therefore have him flogged and release him."

Then they all shouted out together,

ALL "Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!"

(This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.) Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again; but they kept shouting,

ALL "Crucify, crucify him!"

A third time he said to them, "Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him." But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed. So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted. He released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished.

As they led him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus. A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him. But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For the days are surely coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.'

Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.' For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?" Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him.

PLEASE STAND AS YOU ARE ABLE.

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left.

Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying,

ALL "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!"

The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." Having said this, he breathed his last.

A brief moment of silence follows.

When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, "Certainly this man was innocent." And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts. But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

SILENCE IS OBSERVED.

You may kneel.

The Prayers of the People

As we come together at the start of this most holy of weeks, let us pray to God for compassion and mercy.

For Christian people throughout the world, and for the clergy and people of this parish, that through conversation and patient listening we may grow into a rich union in Christ,

Let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For those who make laws, interpret them, and administer them, that our common life may be ordered in justice and mercy,

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who have the courage and honesty to work openly for justice and peace.

For those who serve in our armed forces,

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who are weighed down with hardship, failure, or sorrow and feel that God is far from them; for those in the darkness and agony of isolation, for those who have asked for our prayers. We ask that they may find support, healing and encouragement,

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who are tempted to give up the way of the cross,

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That we, with those who have died in faith, may find mercy in the day of Christ,

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant We offer these prayers in the strength and the love of Jesus, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Please be seated.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Hymn

Wondrous Love

Benjamin David Knoedler

Joseph & Stephanie Murray, Soloists

What wondrous love is this, O, my soul?
What wondrous love is this, that caused the Lord of bliss
To bear the curse, for my soul? Oh, what wondrous love is this!
And when, from death, I'm free, I'll sing on;
And, through eternity, I'll sing on! Oh, what wondrous love is this!
To God, and to the Lamb, I will sing, to God, and to the Lamb!
While millions join the theme, I will sing to God, the great I AM.

Please stand as you are able.

Music at Communion

Hymn 168 O Sacred Head, Sore Wounded

O sacred head, sore wounded, defiled and put to scorn;
O kingly head, surrounded with mocking crown of thorn:
What sorrow mars thy grandeur? Can death thy bloom deflower?
O countenance whose splendor the hosts of heaven adore!

Thy beauty, long-desiréd, hath vanished from our sight;
Thy power is all expiréd, and quenched the light of light.
Ah me! for whom thou diest, hide not so far thy grace:
Show me, O Love most highest, the brightness of thy face.

In thy most bitter passion my heart to share doth cry,
With thee for my salvation upon the cross to die.
Ah, keep my heart thus moved to stand thy cross beneath,
To mourn thee, well-belovéd, yet thank thee for thy death.

What language shall I borrow to thank thee, dearest friend,
For this thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?
Oh, make me thine forever! and should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never, outlive my love for thee.

My days are few, O fail not, with thine immortal power,
To hold me that I quail not in death's most fearful hour;
That I may fight befriended, and see in my last strife
To me thine arms extended upon the cross of life.

You may kneel.

Postcommunion Prayer Page 339, Book of Common Prayer

The Blessing

Celebrant Christ crucified draw you to himself to find in him a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope, and the assurance of sins forgiven, and the blessing of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be upon you and remain with you today and always. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

Recessional Hymn Ride On! Ride on in Majesty!

Vs. 1 - 3

Ride on! Ride on in majesty! Hark! All the tribes hosanna cry;
Thy humble beast pursues his road, with palms and scattered garments strowed.

Ride on! Ride on in majesty! In lowly pomp ride on to die;
O Christ, thy triumphs now begin, o'er captive death and conquered sin.

Ride on! Ride on in majesty! The angel armies of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes to see the approaching sacrifice.

Dismissal

Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
