30 Years of the Christ Church Nutcracker - By Maggie FitzRoy

When Christ Church parishioner Felicia Rhoden first choreographed and directed The Nutcracker with 17 young dancers in the old parish hall, she never dreamed she would still be putting on the magical holiday performance 30 years later with ten times as many dancers on the University of North Florida Lazzara Theater stage.

Just like every other year, most of her dancers in this year's performance are children ages three and up. Just like every other year, they will perform scenes featuring ballet, tap, jazz, lyrical, and contemporary dance styles, as well as a mix of styles. And just like every other year, they will be dancing to raise money for charities benefitting children: Dreams Come True, Pediatric Hospice, St. Jude Children's Hospital, and Amistad orphanage in Bolivia.

"I am so thankful to God in heaven for letting me be here so long," Felicia—affectionately known to her dancers as Miss Felicia—says. "People ask how did this last so long? I think it's because God wants it to. I think it makes him happy to see these precious children dancing for others."

It's also lasted so long because of Miss Felicia's passionate, dedicated leadership. A professional dancer turned long-time dance teacher, she considered herself retired when she and her husband moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in the mid-1990s. The rector at the time, Jim Cooper, asked her to teach dance at the church, and at first, she turned him down. "I said, I'm just going to be a grandmother," she remembers. "But that lasted about a week." She began teaching dance, her classes grew, and so did The Nutcracker, which she continues to choreograph and direct and create new dances for each year.

Felicia first began dancing at age 4 in Savannah, where she grew up. After teaching dance there, she moved to New York City to study with the New York City Ballet Company and then went on to dance with a partner who had been with the Russian Ballet. They traveled around the United States, performing classical ballet as principal dancers in major cities. Felicia later moved to Atlanta, where she taught dance before moving to Ponte Vedra Beach.

She strives to make The Nutcracker fun and family-friendly and many of her dancers stay with her from toddlerhood through high school. Many perform in multiple numbers, with quick costume changes backstage.

Felicia credits many faithful volunteers for helping her put the show on year after year, including her assistant, Dawn Jacobs; her daughters Felicia Stapleton and Claire Duffy; and dance mom Carrie Lantzy, who has organized the many costumes for 13-plus years.

Rehearsals began in August this year, just like they do every year. "I want them to walk out on stage and own it so they can enjoy the experience," Felicia says. "We're dancing for children who cannot dance. Over the years we've been sending thousands of dollars to charities from this little church—where it all started in the old parish hall thirty years ago with 17 children dancing on a concrete floor."

Processional Hymn 686 Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Here, I find my greatest treasure; hither, by thy help, I've come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely, to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me, when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

Oh, to grace, how great a debtor, daily, I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, oh, take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

The Reading

Lector A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 23:33-43

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. The people stood by, watching Jesus on the cross; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

The Prayers of the People

Leader

On this, the last Sunday of the liturgical year, we rejoice in the Feast of Christ the King. As we reflect on the meaning of Christ's reign in our hearts and in the world, let us pray with faith and humility, acknowledging that he alone reigns in truth, as we say:

When you come to rule, remember us, O Lord.

Jesus, Savior and Judge, you have confounded earthly judgment by choosing to be numbered among the transgressors. May your words comfort all who are in prison, all judged guilty by society or church, and all who live on the margins of the human family.

We especially pray for those nations suffering the impact of war, and for those who lack food, shelter, and protection in Sudan, Haiti, Cuba and Gaza. When you come to rule,

People

Remember us, O Lord.

Jesus, condemned and powerless before your enemies, grant to the leaders of the nations — especially Ron, our Governor, and Donald, our President — the wisdom to know that their authority is in the service of a greater law.

We also pray for all who serve our nation.

May they act with courage, integrity, and compassion in the pursuit of justice and peace.

When you come to rule,

Remember us, O Lord.

Christ, first-born of the dead, through the blood of your cross you bring unity to what is divided. Grant to your Church the hope of the resurrection — especially to Sean, our Presiding Bishop; the Standing Committee; and the bishops assisting our dioceses — that we may recognize the image of God revealed in your rising.

When you come to rule,

Remember us, O Lord.

Christ, image of the invisible God, free us from holding you within the limits of our own making. We pray for those who have asked for our prayers.

Surround them with your healing presence, strengthen them in faith, and grant that, in the power of the Spirit, we may see all life and all power transformed by the compassion of the cross.

When you come to rule,

Remember us, O Lord.

Jesus, Lord of life and conqueror of death, you have opened the gates of your kingdom to all who trust in your mercy. Receive into the light of your presence those who have died. Bring them into the company of the saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, and where your reign of justice and peace is revealed in all its fullness.

When you come to rule,

Remember us, O Lord.

Celebrant

Grant these petitions, O God, according to your perfect will, that your holy name be praised and proclaimed until that day when all the faithful shall gather before your throne in heaven, through the merits of Christ the King.

Amen.

Sanctus Dominus, Deus Saboth. (Holy Lord, God of Hosts.)

Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. (Heaven and earth are full of Your glory.)

Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, holy is He,

Sing a new song to Him who sits on heaven's mercy seat.

Refrain

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,

Who was, and is, and is to come.

With all creation, I sing praise to the King of kings.

You are my ev'rything, and I will adore You.
Praise to the King of kings, you are my ev'rything.

Clothed in rainbows of living color, flashes of lightning, rolls of thunder.
Blessing and honor, strength, and glory, and power
Be to You, the only wise King. Refrain

Filled with wonder, awestruck wonder, at the mention of Your name.
Jesus, Your name is power, breath, and living water,
Such a marv'lous mystery.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,
Who was, and is, and is to come.
With all creation, I sing praise to the King of kings.
You are my ev'rything, and I will adore You.

*Today we sing "Alma de Cristo," the Spanish version of the ancient prayer
Anima Christi ("Soul of Christ"). This beautiful 14th-century text has long been cherished in Christian prayer and song.*

Alma de Cristo

Alma de Cristo, santificame.
Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame.
Sangre de Cristo, embriágame.
Agua del costado de Cristo, lávame.

Pasión de Cristo, confórtame,
Oh, buen Jesús, óyeme.
Y dentro de tus llagas, escóndeme.
No permitas que me aparte de Ti.

Del enemigo, defiéndeme.
En la hora de mi muerte, llámame.
Y mándame ir a ti
para que con tus santos te alabe
por los siglos, de los siglos, Amén.

*Soul of Christ, sanctify me
Body of Christ, save me
Blood of Christ, inebriate me
Water from the side of Christ, wash me
Passion of Christ, strengthen me
O good Jesus, hear me
Within Thy wounds, hide me
Separated from Thee let me never be
From the malignant enemy, defend me
At the hour of death, call me
To come to Thee, bid me
That I may praise Thee in the company
Of Thy Saints for all eternity. Amen.*

General Warning about Phishing and Other Scams

Please note that all of our clergy and some of our lay staff continue to be victims of phishing attempts and other online scams. There is nothing that we can do to stop these attacks apart from warning you about them. Please note on the church website (www.ccpvb.org) the real and valid email addresses of our clergy and staff. Phishing attacks work by taking our valid email addresses and changing them just a little bit. The scammers then impersonate the clergy or staff, using these faked email addresses, sending emails to you (yes, they have your email address as well), asking for money or gift cards. Please do not fall for this scam. No one from this church will ever ask you for gift cards. And please pray for the scammers, that they may repent from their thieving ways, and give their life to Jesus!
