

Holy Eucharist Rite II

Third Sunday of Advent

December 14, 2025 - 11:15 a.m.

A Letter for the Season of Advent

As we begin, once again, a new Church year, during the season of Advent—a time of longing, reflection, and hopeful waiting we are invited to pause amid the rush of December and listen for the quiet footsteps of God drawing near. The word itself means “coming,” and throughout these four weeks, we prepare not only to celebrate Christ’s birth in Bethlehem but also to welcome His presence among us now and His promised return in glory.

Advent is a season of light growing in the midst of darkness, a time when candles and prayers together remind us that the world’s true hope does not come from our own efforts but from the faithfulness of God. Each Sunday deepens this hope and moves us closer to Christmas.

On the First Sunday of Advent, we hear Jesus’ call to watch and stay awake (Matt. 24:36–44). The Church year begins not in a manger but with a reminder of Christ’s final coming—a call to vigilance and trust. The message is clear: history has meaning because God is not finished with the world.

The Second Sunday brings us the voice of John the Baptist crying in the wilderness, “Prepare the way of the Lord” (Matt. 3:1–12). His urgent words invite us to repentance and renewal, to clear away the clutter in our hearts so there is room for the Christ who comes.

On the Third Sunday, known as Gaudete Sunday, the tone brightens as we hear John’s question from prison: “Are you the one who is to come?” (Matt. 11:2–11). Even in doubt, joy breaks through. The pink candle on the Advent wreath glows as a sign that God’s promises are already unfolding in our midst.

Finally, the Fourth Sunday turns our gaze toward Joseph, who dreams of angels and learns to trust God’s plan (Matt. 1:18–25). His quiet obedience mirrors the deep peace that comes from faith. As Mary and Joseph await the child, so too do we wait—with love, humility, and readiness for Emmanuel, “God with us.”

Through these four Sundays, we trace the path of hope, preparation, joy, and love—the true gifts of Advent. I encourage you to keep this season prayerfully: light your candles, read Scripture, attend worship, and let this time shape your heart for the coming of Christ.

May this Advent be for us all a holy journey from darkness to light, from waiting to wonder, from promise to fulfillment.

Grace and peace,

Fr. Andreis +
Vice-Rector

Processional Hymn 72 Hark! The Glad Sound!

Hark! The glad sound! the Savior comes, the Savior promised long;
Let every heart prepare a throne, and every voice, a song.

He comes, the prisoners to release, in Satan's bondage, held;
The gates of brass, before him, burst, the iron fetters yield.

He comes, the broken heart to bind, the bleeding soul to cure;
And, with the treasures of his grace, to enrich the humble poor.

Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace, thy welcome shall proclaim;
And heaven's eternal arches ring, with thy beloved Name.

First Reading

Lector

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

35:1-10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, the majesty of our God. Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you."

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Psalm 146: 4-9

- ⁴ Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help,
whose hope is in the Lord their God;
- ⁵ Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them;
who keeps his promise forever;
- ⁶ Who gives justice to those who are oppressed,
and food to those who hunger.
- ⁷ The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes of the blind;
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;
- ⁸ The Lord loves the righteous; the Lord cares for the stranger;
he sustains the orphan and widow, but frustrates the way of the wicked.
- ⁹ The Lord shall reign forever,
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations. Hallelujah!

Second Reading

Lector A reading from the letter of James

5:7-10

Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Gospel Song Hymn 56

O Come, Emmanuel

V. 6 & Refrain

Refrain: Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 11:2-11

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.'

"Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Recessional Hymn 438 Tell Out, My Soul

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings give my spirit voice;
Tender, to me, the promise of his word;
In God, my Savior, shall my heart rejoice.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his Name!
Make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
His mercy sure, from age to age, the same;
His holy Name— the Lord, the Mighty One.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by.
Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
The hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
To children's children, and forevermore!

General Warning - Phishing & Other Scams

Please note that all of our clergy and some of our lay staff continue to be victims of phishing attempts and other online scams. There is nothing that we can do to stop these attacks apart from warning you about them. Please note on the church website (www.ccpvb.org) the real and valid email addresses of our clergy and staff. Phishing attacks work by taking our valid email addresses and changing them just a little bit. The scammers then impersonate the clergy or staff, using these faked email addresses, sending emails to you (yes, they have your email address as well), asking for money or gift cards. Please do not fall for this scam. No one from this church will ever ask you for gift cards. And please pray for the scammers, that they may repent from their thieving ways, and give their life to Jesus!
