

LENT 2026

*Light through the Cracks:
Chosen Vessels of God's Glory*

March 22, 2026      5:00 p.m.      Church

The Fifth Sunday in Lent
Holy Eucharist: Contemplative

Dear Beloved in Christ,

This year, Lent comes to us in a time of noise and urgency. We live in a world where certainty is boldly claimed, and voices compete to tell us where truth, meaning, and hope are to be found. In such a season, the Church invites us not to louder arguments but to a different kind of light.

Lent calls us back to the light of Christ — not a light that dazzles through dominance, nor one that shines from perfection, but a light that breaks through cracks.

From Ash Wednesday's solemn reminder — "Remember that you are dust" — we begin not in shame, but in truth. We are fragile, finite, and flawed. And yet Scripture dares to proclaim that we are also chosen — vessels of divine glory. As St. Paul writes, "We have this treasure in clay vessels." Our dust is not discarded by God; it is where grace begins to glow.

Throughout this Lenten journey in Lectionary Year A, we will watch how God's light shines precisely where the world least expects it.

This is the paradox at the heart of Lent: God's glory is not revealed in control or triumphalism, but in humility, compassion, and self-giving love. The cracks we try to conceal — our doubts, wounds, failures, losses — become, in Christ, openings through which grace shines.

This year, our preaching and Lenten formation series, Becoming Beloved Community, invites us to see ourselves — and one another — in this light. To be a beloved community is to be honest about our brokenness and courageous enough to let Christ's light shine through our brokenness. It is to trust that God is still shaping us into vessels of mercy in a fractured world.

As we receive ashes, walk through the wilderness, wrestle with questions, face our thirst, confront our blindness, grieve our losses, and stand at the foot of the cross, may we remember:

We are dust. We are cracked. We are chosen.

And through every fracture, the light of Christ shines still.

Fr. Andreis
Vice-Rector

*Welcome to Christ Church Ponte Vedra Beach! We are delighted to have you worship with us.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!*

THE WORD OF GOD

Silence for Prayer

This contemplative service is preceded by a period of silence at 4:50 p.m.

Prelude

Intrumental music

Opening Sentences

Reader Blessed are you, O Lord our God, the shepherd of Israel,
Their pillar of cloud by day, their pillar of fire by night.
In these forty days you lead us into the desert of repentance
That in this pilgrimage of prayer

People We might learn to be your people once more.

In fasting and service you bring us back to your heart.
You open our eyes to your presence in the world and you free our hands to lead others to the radiant splendour of your mercy.
Be with us in these journey days for without you we are lost and will perish.

People To you alone be dominion and glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Silence is observed.

The Confession

Celebrant Before God, with the people of God, I confess to my brokenness: to the ways I wound my life, the lives of others, and the life of the world.

People May God forgive you, Christ renew you, and the Spirit enable you to grow in love.

Celebrant Amen.

People Before God, with the people of God, we confess to our brokenness: to the ways we wound our lives, the lives of others, and the life of the world.

Celebrant May God forgive you, Christ renew you, and the Spirit enable you to grow in love.

People Amen.

First Hymn

Renew Us, Have Mercy

Rachel Kamps

Jesus, Jesus...

Refrain

Renew us, oh God
In the image of Your love
Renew us in the likeness
Of Your mercy, oh God. Repeat

Have mercy, have mercy

Have mercy, oh God

May any refusal to forgive

That lingers with me from the day

Any bitterness of soul

That hardens my heart

Be softened by Your graces in the night. Refrain

Have mercy, have mercy

Have mercy, oh God

Prayer for the Evening

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Be present, Spirit of God, within us, your dwelling place and home, that this house of worship, may be one, where all darkness is penetrated by your light, all troubles calmed by your peace, all evil redeemed by your love, all pain transformed in your suffering, and all dying glorified in your risen life. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Gospel

Leader A reading from the Gospel according to John

11:1-45

People Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest!

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.” But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.” The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?” Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world. But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them.” After saying this, he told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him.” The disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right.” Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.” Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.” Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.”

Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” She said to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.”

When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.” And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?”

So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

Leader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Reflection

The Reverend Amy Slater

A reflection is essentially based on a personal experience and is a great way to share what God is doing in our lives. When we listen to what God is doing in our brothers' and sisters' lives, we are likely to grow in greater awareness of how God works in our own lives.

One minute of silence follows.

Music for Meditation

You may stand or kneel.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray for ourselves, and others.

Silence

Reader We pray for all who work through the power of Christ, serving the needs of the poor and healing the wounds of injustice, division and materialism in our society.

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

Reader Lord, in your mercy.

People Hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for the elderly, the sick and the lonely among us, that they may receive comfort, companionship and care from those around them.

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

Reader Lord, in your mercy.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We pray that those who have been persecuted or seriously wronged by others may experience warmth and love with Christ, and be able to forgive those who have hurt them.

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

Reader Lord, in your mercy.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We pray that when we are discouraged, we may find strength in the signs of a loving and faithful God in those around us, and the joy of the Holy Spirit within us.

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

Reader Lord, in your mercy.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We pray for those whom we no longer see; those who have gone beyond the veil of this mortal life, that their souls and the souls of all the departed may rest in peace.

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

Reader Lord, in your mercy.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We pray for all those who have asked for our prayers and for those who have no one to pray for them.

People may add their own prayers either silently or aloud.

Reader Lord, in your mercy.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Lord Jesus, support the sick, the dying, and all for whom this night will be a trial. And as you look upon us this evening, may the light of your countenance pass beyond our sins, even to the depths of our hearts; and bring to birth there a deep and trustful love, that we may be instruments of your peace. Amen.

Please be seated.

Candlelighting

We continue our prayers through the lighting of the votive candles as a symbol of our love and concern for others. During the instrumental music, you are welcome to light a single candle as a symbol of your prayers.

Please stand.

The Peace

Celebrant

Christ, the Good Shepherd, bind us with a bond of love that cannot be broken. My sisters and brothers, the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People

And also with you.

Please be seated.

Welcome and Announcements

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory

Give me Jesus

Spiritual

Please stand.

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant

The Lord be with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Lift up your hearts.

People

We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues

It is indeed right and good to give you thanks and praise, almighty God and everlasting Father, through Jesus Christ your Son. For in these forty days you lead us into the desert of repentance that through a pilgrimage of prayer and discipline we may grow in grace and learn to be your people once again.

Through fasting, prayer and acts of service you bring us back to your generous heart. Through study of your holy word you open our eyes to your presence in the world and free our hands to welcome others into the radiant splendor of your love.

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san-na in the high - est!

Celebrant continues

We praise you for Jesus Christ, born of peasant parents, friend of lepers and tax collectors, who chose a life given up for others. On the night before he died, he shared a meal with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying: "This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me." After supper he took a cup of wine, blessed it and gave it to them saying: "This is my life-blood poured out for you. Do this to remember me."

So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All together

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant continues

Come now Holy Spirit of God. Come upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine, that in sharing this feast we may become the body of Christ. Break down the walls of selfishness and fear and bring us all to the new age in which none go hungry and all are fed. Through Christ, with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Cantor As our Sa - vior Christ has taught us we now pray,

All Our Fa - ther in hea - ven, hal - lowed be your Name, your king - dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea - ven.
 Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for - give those who sin a - gainst us. Save us from the time of tri - al, and de - liv - er us from e - vil. For the king - dom, the power, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Blessed are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.
People Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the Bread.

Lamb of God

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, Re - deem - er, re - deem - er of the world, do - na no - bis pa - cem, do - na no - bis pa - cem, do - na no - bis pa - cem.

Celebrant continues

This is the table of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little; you who have been here often and you who have not been here long; you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

Please be seated.

Distribution of Communion

Please join us at God's table.

All people, including children, are invited to receive Communion. Gluten-free wafers are also available. If you would prefer not to take Communion but would like a blessing, please fold your arms across your chest.

Communion Music

I Am The Bread of Life

Suzanne Toolan

I am the bread of life,
They who come to me shall not hunger;
They who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me, unless the Father draw them.

Refrain            And I will raise them up, and I will raise them up,
                          And I will raise them up on the last day.

The Bread that I will give is my Flesh,
For the life of the world,
And they who eat of this bread, they shall live forever,
They shall live forever. Refrain

Unless you eat of the Flesh of the Son of Man,
And drink of His Blood, you shall not have life within you,
You shall not have life within you. Refrain

Two minutes of silence follow.

After Communion Music Lord, Who, Throughout These Forty Days C. F. Hernaman

Lord, who, throughout these forty days, for us, didst fast and pray,
Teach us, with thee, to mourn our sins, and, close by thee, to stay.

And, through these days of penitence, and through thy Passiontide,
Yea, evermore, in life and death, Jesus! with us abide.

Abide with us, that so, this life of suffering overpast,
An Easter of unending joy, we may attain, at last!

After Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Loving God, we give you thanks that in the sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood, you awaken us to your indwelling Presence and our true life. Help us to recognize and honor your Presence in one another, to treat each other with reverence and humility, and to become, more and more, the people we already are in you. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Look with compassion, O Lord, upon this your people; that, rightly observing this holy season, they may learn to know you more fully, and to serve you with a more perfect will; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music for Meditation

Please stand.

Dismissal

Leader Go out into the world in peace, have courage, hold on to what is good, return no one evil for evil, strengthen the fainthearted, support the weak, help the suffering, honor everyone, love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

All Thanks be to God.

Postlude

Instrumental Music

Feel free to depart during the postlude.

TODAY, Sunday March 22

Becoming Beloved Community: a Clergy-led look at the Sunday readings in Lent

March 22 | 10:15-11:00am | Room F106

In Lent the light of Christ shines not from strength or perfection, but through humility, compassion, and grace. Each week we will listen for how God calls us to grow loving, life-giving relationships with those whose beliefs and lives differ from our own, reminding us that God's glory is revealed in control or certainty, but in love that meets us in our weakness and transforms it into hope.

Newcomers & Inquirer's Class and Newcomer Celebration!

All are welcome, new and newish - please join us! Then at 11:15am in the Traditional Service we'll officially welcome our newcomers, celebrate our member anniversaries, followed by a luncheon at the Rector's home.

Stephanie Murray is offering two theater camps this summer, one for rising 1st-4th graders and the other for rising 5th to 8th graders. Both sessions will rehearse and perform a show at the end of the week, along with learning the behind-the-scenes of putting on a production. Learn more and register at ccpvb.org!

General Warning - Phishing & Other Scams

Please note that all of our clergy and some of our lay staff continue to be victims of phishing attempts and other online scams. There is nothing that we can do to stop these attacks apart from warning you about them. Please note on the church website (www.ccpvb.org) the real and valid email addresses of our clergy and staff. Phishing attacks work by taking our valid email addresses and changing them just a little bit. The scammers then impersonate the clergy or staff, using these faked email addresses, sending emails to you (yes, they have your email address as well), asking for money or gift cards. Please do not fall for this scam. No one from this church will ever ask you for gift cards. And please pray for the scammers, that they may repent from their thieving ways, and give their life to Jesus!

Holy Eucharist Rite II with Foot Washing

7:00 p.m. Main Sanctuary & Livestreamed
As we follow Jesus' path to the cross, we remember the Last Supper with his disciples and Jesus' commission to a servant's life as he washed their feet in John 13. The Eucharist this evening is especially poignant as we remember Jesus celebrating his Last Supper with His disciples. After the service, we recess outside to remember Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Prayer Vigil

The Cooper Chapel will be open overnight for those who wish to come and pray. Please be mindful of others as you enter the space. There will be security presence on campus throughout the evening.

Good Friday, April 3
