*Light through the Cracks:
Chosen Vessels of God's Glory*

The Third Sunday in Lent

Holy Eucharist: Rite II

Dear Beloved in Christ,

This year, Lent comes to us in a time of noise and urgency. We live in a world where certainty is boldly claimed, and voices compete to tell us where truth, meaning, and hope are to be found. In such a season, the Church invites us not to louder arguments but to a different kind of light.

Lent calls us back to the light of Christ — not a light that dazzles through dominance, nor one that shines from perfection, but a light that breaks through cracks.

From Ash Wednesday's solemn reminder — "Remember that you are dust" — we begin not in shame, but in truth. We are fragile, finite, and flawed. And yet Scripture dares to proclaim that we are also chosen — vessels of divine glory. As St. Paul writes, "We have this treasure in clay vessels." Our dust is not discarded by God; it is where grace begins to glow.

Throughout this Lenten journey in Lectionary Year A, we will watch how God's light shines precisely where the world least expects it.

This is the paradox at the heart of Lent: God's glory is not revealed in control or triumphalism, but in humility, compassion, and self-giving love. The cracks we try to conceal — our doubts, wounds, failures, losses — become, in Christ, openings through which grace shines.

This year, our preaching and Lenten formation series, Becoming Beloved Community, invites us to see ourselves — and one another — in this light. To be a beloved community is to be honest about our brokenness and courageous enough to let Christ's light shine through our brokenness. It is to trust that God is still shaping us into vessels of mercy in a fractured world.

As we receive ashes, walk through the wilderness, wrestle with questions, face our thirst, confront our blindness, grieve our losses, and stand at the foot of the cross, may we remember:

We are dust. We are cracked. We are chosen.

And through every fracture, the light of Christ shines still.

Processional Hymn 686 Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I find my greatest treasure; hither, by thy help, I've come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

Oh, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, oh, take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Welcome Words

Opening Sentences Page 351, The Book of Common Prayer

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People His mercy endures for ever.

Celebrant Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12:29-31

You may kneel or sit.

The Confession

Page 352, The Book of Common Prayer

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant stands and says

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Reading

Lector A reading from the Book of Exodus

17:1-7

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarreled with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?" But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?" So Moses cried out to the Lord, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me." The Lord said to Moses, "Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink." Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the Lord, saying, "Is the Lord among us or not?"

Psalm 95

The Psalm will be read responsively: the lector will read up to the asterisk, and the congregation will respond with the verse following the asterisk.

¹ Come, let us sing to the Lord; *

let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.

² Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving *

and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

³ For the Lord is a great God, *

and a great King above all gods.

⁴ In his hand are the caverns of the earth, *

and the heights of the hills are his also.

⁵ The sea is his, for he made it, *

and his hands have molded the dry land.

⁶ Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *

and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

⁷ For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. *

Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

⁸ Harden not your hearts, as your forebears did in the wilderness, * at Meribah, and on that day at Massah, when they tempted me.

⁹ They put me to the test, *

though they had seen my works.

¹⁰ Forty years long I detested that generation and said, *

"This people are wayward in their hearts; they do not know my ways."

¹¹ So I swore in my wrath, *

"They shall not enter into my rest."

Second Reading

Lector

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans

5:1-11

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Eternal, and yet ever new;
Uncomprehended and unbought,
Beyond all knowledge, and all thought.

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 4:5-42

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ). “When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.” Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking to you.” Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, “What do you want?” or, “Why are you speaking with her?” Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, “Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?” They left the city and were on their way to him.

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat something.” But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.” So the disciples said to one another, “Surely no one has brought him something to eat?” Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, ‘Four months more, then comes the harvest’? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’ I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I have ever done.” So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, “It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world.”

Offertory Anthem

Where Charity and Love Prevail
Chancel Choir and Linda Muldoon, Flute

Dan Forrest

Where charity and love prevail, there, God is ever found.
Brought here, together, by Christ's love, by love, we, thus, are bound.
With grateful joy and holy fear, true charity, we learn;
Let us, with heart, and mind, and strength, now love Him in return.
Forgive we, now, each other's faults, (Let love prevail,)
As we, our faults confess; and let us love each other well, in Christian holiness.
Let strife among us be unknown, let all our fighting cease;
Be Christ, the glory that we seek. Be ours, His holy peace.

Please stand for the Presentation.

Hymn 343 Shepherd of Souls

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless thy chosen pilgrim flock,
With manna in the wilderness, with water from the rock.

We would not live by bread alone, but by thy word of grace,
In strength, of which, we travel on to our abiding-place.

Be known to us in breaking bread, and do not then depart;
Saviour, abide with us, and spread thy table in our heart.

Lord, sup with us, in love divine, thy Body and thy Blood,
That living bread, that heavenly wine, be our immortal food.

Hymn 458 My Song Is Love Unknown

My song is love unknown, my Savior's love to me,
Love to the loveless shown that they might lovely be.

O who am I, that for my sake
My Lord should take frail flesh, and die?

He came from his blest throne salvation to bestow,
But men made strange, and none the longed-for Christ would know.
But O my friend, my friend indeed,
Who at my need his life did spend.

Sometimes they strew his way, and his strong praises sing,
Resounding all the day hosannas to their King.
Then "Crucify!" is all their breath,
And for his death they thirst and cry.

Why, what hath my Lord done? What makes this rage and spite?
He made the lame to run, he gave the blind their sight.
Sweet injuries! Yet they at these Themselves displease, and 'gainst him rise.

They rise, and needs will have my dear Lord made away;
A murderer they save, the Prince of Life they slay.
Yet steadfast he to suffering goes,
That he his foes from thence might free.

In life no house, no home my Lord on earth might have;
In death no friendly tomb but what a stranger gave.
What may I say? Heaven was his home;
But mine the tomb wherein he lay.

Here might I stay and sing, no story so divine;
Never was love, dear King, never was grief like thine.
This is my friend, in whose sweet praise
I all my days could gladly spend.

Recessional Hymn 690 Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah, pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty; hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven, feed me now and evermore,
Feed me now and evermore.

Open now the crystal fountain, whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through;
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer, be thou still my strength and shield,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan, bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction, land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises, songs of praises, I will ever give to thee,
I will ever give to thee.

General Warning - Phishing & Other Scams

Please note that all of our clergy and some of our lay staff continue to be victims of phishing attempts and other online scams. There is nothing that we can do to stop these attacks apart from warning you about them. Please note on the church website (www.ccpvb.org) the real and valid email addresses of our clergy and staff. Phishing attacks work by taking our valid email addresses and changing them just a little bit. The scammers then impersonate the clergy or staff, using these faked email addresses, sending emails to you (yes, they have your email address as well), asking for money or gift cards. Please do not fall for this scam. No one from this church will ever ask you for gift cards. And please pray for the scammers, that they may repent from their thieving ways, and give their life to Jesus!

The world has changed.

And at times we feel further apart than ever before.

But, two things haven't changed:

God's Unwavering Love, and our need for each other.

With that comes the love that Christ Church has for you—all of you.

Because no matter if you attend virtually or in-person.

If you're Episcopalian or Non-Denominational.

Young or Old. Lean Left or Right.

Through the love of Jesus Christ, we are one.

Christ Church is not just a place, it's a community.

It's not just what you do on Sunday, it's how you live every day.

With opportunities to grow, learn, create, worship, praise, connect, serve, and thrive.

We are a church centered around Christ.

We are a community centered around Christ

We are the community of Christ Church.
