Passing the Torch: The Acolyte Ministry Continues

“Serving brings fulfillment, happiness, and a sense of caring.”

These words from Marianne Palmer capture the heart of ministry at Christ Church—and especially the spirit of the acolyte ministry she faithfully led for more than 20 years.

As Youth Acolyte Ministry Leader, Marianne guided generations of young people, helping them grow in confidence and develop leadership skills. “I enjoyed being with the children during their years of growth,” she shared, “and providing opportunities to build confidence and leadership skills.” Today, many of those former acolytes are adults with families of their own—a testament to her lasting impact.

Now, that legacy continues with Melissa Kurz Johnson (Mel), who steps into leadership with gratitude and a sense of calling.

Mel’s connection to this ministry began years ago. Growing up in the Episcopal Church, she served as an acolyte throughout middle and high school and now serves as a Eucharistic Minister.

“Marianne has done an amazing job with this ministry for many years,” Mel shares. “I know I have big shoes to fill.”

“I love being a part of the service and feel this is such an important aspect of worship,” she says. “Getting our children involved and understanding how the Eucharist works helps ensure that long-term connection to the Church.”

The acolyte ministry is open to middle and high school students who feel called to serve. Acolytes typically serve one to two times per month and receive training so they can participate with confidence. Along the way, they gain a deeper appreciation for worship, earn service hours, and become part of a meaningful community.

“My hope,” Mel says, “is to grow this into a fun group of kids who enjoy serving together.”

Rooted in Marianne’s legacy, this ministry continues to invite the next generation to serve, belong, and grow at the heart of worship.

Processional Hymn 208

The Strife Is O'er, the Battle Done

Vs. 1 - 4

Refrain

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The strife is o'er, the battle done,
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun. Alleluia!

The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed:
Let shout of holy joy outburst. Alleluia!

The three sad days are quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead:
All glory to our risen Head! Alleluia!

He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise his triumphs tell! Alleluia!

First Reading

Lector

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

2:14a, 22-32

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know— this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him, ‘I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope. For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption. You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

“Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, ‘He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.’ This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.”

Psalm 16

- ¹ Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
I have said to the Lord, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”
- ² All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land,
Upon those who are noble among the people.
- ³ But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.
- ⁴ Their libations of blood I will not offer, nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
- ⁵ O Lord, you are my portion and my cup;
It is you who uphold my lot.
- ⁶ My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- ⁷ I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me night after night.
- ⁸ I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- ⁹ My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope.
- ¹⁰ For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- ¹¹ You will show me the path of life;
In your presence there is fullness of joy,
And in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Second Reading

Lector A reading from the First Letter of Peter

1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith-- being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire-- may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Gospel Song Hymn 188 Love's Redeeming Work

Love's redeeming work is done, fought the fight, the battle won.
Death in vain forbids him rise; Christ has opened paradise.

Lives again our glorious King; where, O death, is now thy sting?
Once he died our souls to save, where thy victory, O grave?

Soar we now where Christ has led, following our exalted Head;
made like him, like him we rise, ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

The Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 20:19-31

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Thou from heaven beholding human nature’s fall,
Of the Father’s Godhead true and only Son,
Mankind to deliver, manhood didst put on. Refrain

Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
Come then, true and faithful, now fulfill thy word,
‘Tis thine own third morning! rise, O buried Lord! Refrain

All that now is fallen raise to life again;

Recessional Hymn 494 Crown Him with Many Crowns Vs. 1 - 4

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own;
Awake, my soul, and sing of him, who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King, through all eternity.

Crown him the Son of God, before the worlds began,
And ye, who tread where he hath trod, crown him the Son of man;
Who, every grief hath known, that wrings the human breast,
And takes, and bears them for his own, that all in him may rest.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed over the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife, for those he came to save;
His glories, now, we sing, who died, and rose on high,
Who died, eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown him of lords, the Lord, who over all doth reign,
Who, once on earth, the incarnate Word, for ransomed sinners slain,
Now lives in realms of light, where saints, with angels,
Sing their songs before him day and night, their God, Redeemer, King.

General Warning - Phishing & Other Scams

Please note that all of our clergy and some of our lay staff continue to be victims of phishing attempts and other online scams. There is nothing that we can do to stop these attacks apart from warning you about them. Please note on the church website (www.ccpvb.org) the real and valid email addresses of our clergy and staff. Phishing attacks work by taking our valid email addresses and changing them just a little bit. The scammers then impersonate the clergy or staff, using these faked email addresses, sending emails to you (yes, they have your email address as well), asking for money or gift cards. Please do not fall for this scam. No one from this church will ever ask you for gift cards. And please pray for the scammers, that they may repent from their thieving ways, and give their life to Jesus!

The world has changed.

And at times we feel further apart than ever before.

But, two things haven't changed:

God's Unwavering Love, and our need for each other.

With that comes the love that Christ Church has for you—all of you.

Because no matter if you attend virtually or in-person.

If you're Episcopalian or Non-Denominational.

Through the love of Jesus Christ, we are one.

Christ Church is not just a place, it's a community.

It's not just what you do on Sunday, it's how you live every day.

With opportunities to grow, learn, create, worship, praise, connect, serve, and thrive.

We are a church centered around Christ.

We are a community centered around Christ

We are the community of Christ Church.
