Barb Roberts: Ponte Vedra Community Association Person of the Year

By Maggie FitzRoy

When Barbara Roberts moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 2009 with husband, Mike, she immediately looked for ways to become part of the community while also helping to build community.

“Our kids had already graduated from school,” Barb says. “So how do you meet people and make friends?”

She knew how and she got to work.

In Arlington, Virginia, where she’d run a music and drama business for children, she’d been a member and president of the Arlington Community Association. So, she and Mike joined the Ponte Vedra Community Association, a social organization founded in 1926.

But she wanted to do more. So, in 2011, she founded the Ponte Vedra Women’s Civic Alliance, an organization that brings women together in friendship, service, and philanthropy, now celebrating its 15th year.

But then, she decided she had even more to give and credits the opportunity that came her way to God. In 2011, after she and Mike joined Christ Church, she helped launch the church’s musical theater program for adults and children with Music Ministries Director Rachel Root and her husband, Tim.

Recognizing Barb’s extraordinary impact on the community, the Ponte Vedra Community Association recently named her as the organization’s Person of the Year.

“The 2026 PVCA Person of the Year Award is presented to an individual who has dedicated their time, talent, leadership, and heart to making Ponte Vedra Beach a stronger and more connected community,” PVCA President Lori Wells announced at the organization’s 80th anniversary celebration.

“This year’s recipient embodies all those qualities. Her leadership, vision, generosity, and volunteer hours have made a lasting impact.”

“It came as a total surprise,” Barb says of receiving the award. “I was truly humbled and grateful.”

But it was also well earned. Barb served as PVCA president for three years, from 2021 to 2023. Under her leadership and guidance, the Ponte Vedra Women’s Civic Alliance has raised and distributed hundreds of thousands of dollars for local charities and causes while forging connections and friendships among members.

Under her role as executive producer, the Christ Church theater program has brought together families, church members, and talented performers from around the First Coast to present twice annual musical productions for children and adults, including The Sound of Music, Fiddler on the Roof, Oliver, and Godspell. Tim Root recognized in 2011 that the Contemporary Space would be a perfect place for musical theater, Barb says. So along with her music and drama background, “it was the perfect alignment that God put me together with Rachel and Tim.”

She’s excited for the next children’s performance this fall, Finding Nemo, with auditions set to take place in August. “I’m grateful to God for bringing us to this wonderful community,” Barb says, “and to this church.”

Welcome to Christ Church, Ponte Vedra Beach!
We are delighted to have you worship with us, either in person or online.
In order to prepare for this service, we ask that you silence your phone. Thank you!

Processional Hymn 686 Come, Thou Fount

Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Here, I find my greatest treasure; hither, by thy help, I've come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely, to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me, when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

Oh, to grace, how great a debtor, daily, I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, oh, take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

First Reading

Lector A reading from the Book of Exodus

19:2-8a

The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.”

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: “Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.”

Psalm 100

Lector ¹ Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; *

People serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

² Know this: The Lord himself is God; *

he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

³ Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise; *

give thanks to him and call upon his Name.

⁴ For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; *

and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Second Reading

Lector

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans

5:1-8

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 9:35-10:14

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town.

Communion Music

PSB 164 Surely, the Presence

Refrain: Surely, the presence of the Lord is in this place,
I can feel His mighty power and His grace.
I can hear the brush of angels' wings,
I see glory on each face,
Surely, the presence of the Lord is in this place.

In the midst of His children, the Lord said He would be.
It doesn't take very many, it can be just two or three.
And I feel that same sweet Spirit that I've felt oft times before.
Oh, surely, I can say I've been with the Lord. Refrain

There's a holy hush around us, as God's glory fills this place.
I've touched the hem of His garment, and I can almost see His face.
And my heart is overflowing with the fullness of His joy.
I know, without a doubt, that I've been with the Lord. Refrain

PSB 170

First Song of Isaiah

Refrain Surely, it is God who saves me;
I will trust in Him and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold, and my sure defense,
And He will be my Savior.

Therefore, you shall draw water, with rejoicing,
From the springs of salvation.
And on that day, you shall say,
“Give thanks to the Lord, and call upon His name.” Refrain

Make His deeds known among the peoples;
See that they remember that His name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord, for He has done great things,
And this is known in all the world. Refrain
Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy,
For the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel. Refrain

Recessional Hymn 680 O God, Our Help in Ages Past

Vs. 1-5

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home:

Under the shadow of thy throne, thy saints have dwelt, secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone, and our defense is sure.

Before the hills, in order, stood, or earth received her frame,
From everlasting, thou art God, to endless years, the same.

A thousand ages, in thy sight, are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night, before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all our years away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

Dismissal

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

SUMMER CAMPS AT CHRIST CHURCH

Scan for more information:

General Warning - Phishing & Other Scams

Please note that our clergy and lay staff continue to be victims of phishing attempts and other online scams. There is nothing that we can do to stop these attacks apart from warning you about them. Please note on the church website (www.ccpvb.org) the real and valid email addresses of our clergy and staff. Phishing attacks work by taking our valid email addresses and changing them just a little bit. The scammers then impersonate the clergy or staff, using these faked email addresses, sending emails to you (yes, they have your email address as well), asking for money or gift cards. Please do not fall for this scam. No one from this church will ever ask you for gift cards. And please pray for the scammers, that they may repent from their thieving ways, and give their life to Jesus!

A Fragrant Offering of a Different Kind - A Gentle Request

Several members of our church family live with allergies or breathing conditions (asthma, COPD, etc.) that can make strong fragrances genuinely uncomfortable. As an act of care and love for those who are affected, we gently ask that everyone refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or heavily scented products to worship services. This small gesture makes a meaningful difference and helps ensure that everyone can participate fully in our life together. Thank you for your kindness.

The world has changed.

And at times we feel further apart than ever before.

But, two things haven't changed:

God's Unwavering Love, and our need for each other.

With that comes the love that Christ Church has for you—all of you.

Because no matter if you attend virtually or in-person.

If you're Episcopalian or Non-Denominational.

Through the love of Jesus Christ, we are one.

Christ Church is not just a place, it's a community.

It's not just what you do on Sunday, it's how you live every day.

With opportunities to grow, learn, create, worship, praise, connect, serve, and thrive.

We are a church centered around Christ.

We are a community centered around Christ

We are the community of Christ Church.
